Piſa, April 28. N. S.

LAST Night Orders were given out for the Grand Duke's Removal to Leghorn on the twenty ninth; to which Place he will be followed by the Foreign Miniſters who are attending the Court here. On the ſeventeenth of the laſt Month a French Privateer took the Amſterdam Galley, which is valued at ſixteen hundred thouſand Dollars, under the Forts of Leghorn. The French ſent Men, and attacked the Veſſel from the Shoar, which being an Inſult on the Grand Duke's Ports and Sovereignty, he hath diſpatched a Courier to the Court of France, to complain thereof, and to demand Reſtitution of the Veſſel.

Venice, May 2. N. S. This Day the Law-Suit between the Duke of Lorrain, and the Princeſſes of Hanover and Condé, concerning the Inheritance of the late Duke of Mantua, was decided in favour of the Princeſſes. Mr. Craggs, her Britannick Majeſty's Reſident in Spain, is arrived here; and to Morrow he deſigns to ſet out for Genoa, and proceed from thence to Barcelona. Laſt Monday Signior Piſani, Procurator of St. Mark, died in this City; the next Day the Cavalier Aſcanio Giuſtiniani, who is returning from his Embaſſy to Conſtantinople, was elected by the Council of State to ſucceed him. The Senate hath appointed Signior Victor Zano to be their Ambaſſador to the Imperial Court, in the place of Monſieur Laurence Tiepolo, who is recalled. This Republick being aſſured, by Advices from Conſtantinople, that the Turks have no Deſign to engage themſelves in a War with this State, or any other Chriſtian Princes, they have already disbanded the greateſt part of their Troops, and will ſpeedily reform the reſt. Letters from Rome ſay, that the Pope was ſo well recovered of his late Indiſpoſition, that he aſſiſted at all the Functions of the Holy Week, and had given Audience to ſeveral of his Miniſters. However, his Holineſs, by the Advice of his Phyſicians, deſigns to ſet out for Caſtel-Gandolfo, for the benefit of the Air; and Inſtructions are given for preparing that Place for his Reception. A new Promotion of Cardinals is deferred, tho' there is now a thirteenth Vacancy in the Sacred College, by the Deceaſe of the Cardinal Durazzo, who died lately at Bologna. The Conferences are continued concerning the Reſtitution of Commachio; but that Affair is not yet determined, and it is ſaid the Imperialiſts have alſo revived their Pretenſions to Ferrara, which will retard their Proceedings. The Differences between Rome and this Republick, are ſaid to have been adjuſted by Monſieur Albani, and the Venetian Ambaſſador at Vienna; and we hear that the Pope will mediate between France and this State, in what relates to Cardinal Ottoboni. Theſe Letters add, that Prince Avellino was ſpeedily expected at Rome, in the Quality of Ambaſſador from his Catholick Majeſty. That Prince hath ſignified to the Court, that he will take Poſſeſſion of the Houſe belonging to the King of Spain's Miniſters, as ſoon as he appears in his Publick Character; and alledges that Palace doth properly belong to the Kingdom of Naples. The Duke of Anjou's Miniſter is now in Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Palace; and the Pope thinks himſelf obliged to defend him, if any forcible Methods ſhould be taken; but his Holineſs being very apprehenſive of the Conſequences of ſuch Proceedings, hath ſent a Courier to Vienna concerning this Affair, and hopes thereby to prevent all Diſorders. They write from Naples of the 22d and 26th of the laſt Month, that Prince Pio was arrived there from Barcelona, with a Commiſſion from the King of Spain to take upon him the Command of a Regiment of Neapolitans. His Catholick Majeſty hath alſo given him the Eſtate of which his Brother, who is now in Sicily, was poſſeſſed in the Kingdom of Naples. Theſe Letters add, that ſeveral Perſons had been taken up for holding a Correſpondence with the Enemy. Two Priors of Convents, and two Friars, have been apprehended for ſeducing Soldiers into the Duke of Anjou's Service, and ſending them to Porto Longone by the way of Rome, where the Cardinal de la Tremouille gave them five Piſtoles a Man; for which Crimes one of the Priors is to be ſtrangled. It appears by the Diſcovery of this Conſpiracy, that the Preparations which the Enemy gave out were made for a Deſcent on Sardinia, were deſigned againſt Gaeta, which Place they hoped to ſurprize, and thereby open a Way for further Enterprizes on the Kingdom of Naples.

Copenhagen, May 6. N. S. The Danes lately brought up here four Dutch Ships laden with Salt, and bound for Stockholm, but they are releaſed again. The Lubeck Ships are however ſtill detained, though the Imperial Reſident, the Secretary of the Elector of Hanover, and a Deputy from Lubeck, are very preſſing in their Sollicitations to have them diſcharged. Vice-Admiral Raab's Squadron ſailed from the Sound on the 4th Inſtant, the Wind being fair for the Coaſt of Norway. A Regiment of Marines was yeſterday put on Board a Squadron which is fitting out in this Port, in order to Cruize in the Eaſt Sea, under the Command of Admiral Van Stucken; but it is probable that Squadron may continue here 'till the other is returned from Norway. Major-General Voyght, Governor of Cronenburg, died on the 4th Inſtant, and yeſterday Colonel Lepp l died of a Spotted Fever. Lieutenant-General Schultz is ordered to take upon him the Command of our Infantry; and Baron Lyendal is appointed to be Vice-Stadtholder of Norway. Monſieur Krabbe, the Privy-Councellor, is ſtill in the Country, raiſing Recruits for the Militia, out of the Peaſants in this Iſland. The Governor of Bornholm has ſignified to this Court, that he had Intelligence that a Squadron is preparing to ſail for Carelſcroon, with four thouſand Men for the Succour of Riga.

Bruſſels, May 15. N. S. They write from Paris, of the 12th Inſtant, that the French King, in Conſideration of the Services of the Duke of Berwick, had created him a Peer of France, and that he was ſet out for Dauphiné, in order to viſit that Frontier, and aſſemble the Army. Letters from Madrid of the 28th of the laſt Month ſay, that the Marquis de Villadarias had given the Duke of Anjou an Account of the Poſture of Affairs in Arragon, and acquainted him, that the Horſe were cantoned along the Ebro, and the Foot on the River Cinca; that the Confederates were aſſembling their Forces, and would ſpeedily enter upon the Operations of the Campaign. The Duke of Anjou, on this Intelligence, hath fixed his Departure to the 6th of this Month. Theſe Letters add, that the Army on the Frontiers of Portugal had been reinforced with a Body of Troops from Andaluſia, and was formed near Badajos.

Falmouth, May 6. Yeſterday put in here the Great Pearl, Captain Credo Commander, from Cruiſing, and brought in as Prize a ſmall French Privateer of twenty five
